INTERNATIONAL CHILD WELFARE REVIEW

Vol. XIX — 1965

CONTENTS

	No.	Page
Prevention of Juvenile Delinquency — Evaluation of Different Types of Action
Editorial	1	5
William C. KVARACEUS : Introductory Report	1	7
William C. KVARACEUS : General Report	1	23
List of Participants	1	39
Self-Help, Community Development and Child Welfare
Glen LEET : Self-Help, Community Development and Child Welfare	2	53
Melvin E. FRAREY : Food for Development	2	63
Theodora PANTOS : Family and Community Self-Help Programmes in Greece	2	69
Mary Lou EWING : Community Development Inspires American Indian Children	2	75
Helen GUNTHER : Self-Help in the Schools—U.S.A. and Abroad	2	80
Our Contributors	2	83
Aspects of Child Welfare in the People's Democracies : I. USSR
Henryka VEILLARD-CYBULSKA : Aspects of Child Welfare in the USSR	3	101
References	3	129
Mental Retardation—New Trends and Developments
Editorial	4	145
Gunnar DYBWAD : The Role of Child Welfare in the Field of Mental Retardation	4	146
Henny ROTHSCHILD : The Development of Professional Social Work within the Framework of a Parents' Association	4	157
R. WINTERBOURN : Home Training through Correspondence—a New Zealand Programme	4	164
Grover F. POWERS : The Retarded Child and his Family—a Challenge to Pediatric Practice, Research and Education	4	167

	No.	Page
Evelyn PETERS: A Class for Mentally Retarded Children in a Day Care Center in Iran . . .	4	176
I. DEVALCK: The Pre-School Child Goes to School	4	183
Edward L. LACROSSE: Schooling for the Mentally Retarded Child	4	191
G. Z. KOTHAVALA: Lighting the Way for the Mentally Retarded	4	196
Ellen and Søren SØRENSEN: The Development of a Sheltered Workshop in Denmark	4	201
Book Review	1	46
Books Received	1	47
	3	132
Bibliography	2	94
* * *
International Association of Youth Magistrates: News . .	1	42
	2	84
	3	135